

KOLAR DISTRICT.

Notification of the sale of the right to collect corundum.

It is hereby notified that the right to collect corundum in the Sidlaghatta Taluk will be sold by public auction on 2nd April 1917 at the Kolar District Office by the Deputy Commissioner as per Government Order No. G. 10217-18—Geol. 77-15-3, dated 25th January 1917.

2. The license to collect corundum in the said Taluk will be granted to the person who guarantees the highest minimum royalty.

3. If any person other than the owner of Survey No. 69 of Neradagunttahalli village of the said Taluk happens to be the highest bidder, the Government will acquire the surface right of the land in question and include it in the prospecting license to be granted to that person. The period for which the license may be granted shall be one year from the date thereof.

4. The fee for the license shall be Rs. 10 and the licensee will be required to deposit in the District Treasury the highest minimum royalty guaranteed by him within a week from the date of the sale. If the amount of guaranteed minimum royalty is not paid within a week, a resale will be held and the defaulting purchaser will be held responsible to make good any amount which may be less than the bid offered in the original sale.

5. The royalty to be paid by the licensee shall be Rs. 4 per khandi (850 lbs.) of corundum.

6. No corundum shall be removed from the licensed area without a written permit from the Amildar of the Taluk. When the licensee wishes to remove any corundum which has been collected, he shall forward to the Amildar a statement showing the amount of corundum collected from the licensed area together with the royalty due on the total quantity and request permission to remove the same from the place where it is to some specified destination. The Amildar may thereupon grant the permit required, taking such steps as he may consider necessary to satisfy himself of the correctness of the quantity to be removed.

7. If the total royalty paid during the term of the license at the rate of Rs. 4 per khandi exceeds the amount deposited according to para 4, the amount of the deposit shall be returned to the licensee upon the termination of the license. On the other hand if the royalty paid during the term of the license is less than the guaranteed minimum the deficit shall be made good from the amount deposited and the balance returned to the licensee.

8. The return of the deposit according to para 7 is subject to the due fulfillment on the part of the licensee of the terms and conditions of the license which shall be granted by the Director, Department of Mines and Geology.

P. F. BOWRING,
Deputy Commissioner.

R. H. CAMPBELL,

Private Secretary

to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Notification dated 13th March 1917.

1. The right to collect tolls at the toll-gate at Yelwal, Mysore Taluk, from the 1st July 1917 to the 30th June 1918 will be sold by public auction in the office of the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, by the Deputy Commissioner or other officer deputed for the purpose on the 21st April 1917.

2. The contractor who purchases the right must collect tolls at the rates mentioned in Schedule A on traffic coming from Hunsur side and at no higher rates; and a receipt should be given for payment of toll.

3. The Deputy Commissioner reserves to himself the power of refusing or accepting the highest or any bid that may be offered.

4. The contract amount is payable in twelve equal monthly instalments due on or before the 10th of the following month. The contractor shall pay, as soon as the sale is over, a deposit equal to two months' instalments for the due performance of the contract. The amount in deposit will, if the conditions of the contract are complied with, be credited towards the instalments due for the last two months of the contract.

5. If the deposit is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the contract will be resold at the risk of the approved bidder. If default is made in the payment of the instalments, interest at one pie per rupee per month will be levied till the date of payment, and the unexpired portion of the contract will also be liable to be sold at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner, and the deficit will be recovered from the contractor, who shall not be entitled to the profits, if any.

6. In addition to the amount bid for, the contractor is, subject to the conditions stated in paras 4 and 5, bound to pay local cess at one anna per rupee on the contract amount paid into the treasury.

7. The contractor is also bound to keep an account showing the daily collections, and it shall be open to inspection by the Taluk and District authorities.
